MANY PLEAD GUILTY IN COUNTY COURT

Man Charged With Assaulting Wife of Doctor Is Tried Tuesday.

The hearing of Joe Paschall, charged with aggravated assault on Mrs. Iva Miller wife of Dr. Frank P. Miller, was called in county court Tuesday afternoon before Judge A. S. Elyar, who conferred the September term of court Monday. But little business was transacted the first day, however, case setting occupying the time. The docket for the term embraces a number of cases, several of which were disposed of Tuesday morning.

Pleas of guilty were numerous, among them being Henry O'Neill, charged with theft, who was sentenced to five days in jail; Eduardo Caraballo, theft, 20 days in jail; Manuel Gonzales, theft, 30 days; Martinez, theft, 30 days; Inez Saenz, carrying brass knuckles, 30 days; Clements Mendon, carrying brass knuckles, 30 days; Francisco Sapin was sentenced to a 40 days jail term, Jose Gonzales to 30 days and Manuel Gara also drew 30 days. All were charged jointly with theft.

The longest sentence, that of 60 days, went to Hoyt Williams, charged with swindling. In the information filed against him, it is recited that he obtained $40 from Fred Blythe on the representation that he had money in an Elberta, Ga., bank. Williams pleaded guilty.

David Tyo, charged with carrying a pistol, also pleaded guilty and was sentenced to a 30 days jail term.

COST OF MANEUVERS.
San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 6.—The military maneuvers held at the Leon Springs during the month of August, in which no less than 10,000 troops—regulars and the national guards—participated, cost Uncle Sam 10 round figures $150,000. This does not include the ammunition used, but represents only the cost of the work in preparing the camp, the cost of labor, material, forage for the animals, pay for the troops, rations and subsistence.

Dr. L. D. Ricketts, of Cananea, general manager of the Greene Cananea copper mine of that place, was at the Toltec club Monday and left the same day for home.

Children admitted free at the Alrdome tonight if accompanied by a grown person. Big show and band concert by the Kid Band.

BOYS FINED FOR KILLING TWO DEER

Clouderoff Justice Tries the First Case—Bridal Party at Resort.

(By Mrs. W. S. Tilton.)
Clouderoff, N. M., Sept. 6.—Judge W. P. Clouderoff, the new justice of the peace at North Clouderoff, tried his first case yesterday. The charge was for killing deer out of season. Those arrested were Horace Stevens, Jr., Jimmy Davis, son of W. C. Davis, and Paul Ellis, son of Mrs. Grace Ellis.

Paul and Jimmy pleaded guilty and were fined $50 each. Horace, Jr., looked the judge squarely in the eye and said, "Not guilty," and no one could doubt his word. After the trial, the venison was taken out into the open square and auctioned off. Some kind friend bought two quarters and presented them to the boys, who later sat down to their $100 feast, and in time will brag of the banquet they had when they were in their teens, at $50 the plate. The money goes to Otero colony.

Charles Stevens and Charlie Beisswenger bought the venison, Beisswenger making as high as $4.35 for one of the saddles. The hides were not auctioned off.

Barnett King has returned home. Mrs. U. S. Stewart returned to town yesterday after a very delightful visit as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Slater. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sharp and son returned to El Paso yesterday, after spending the entire summer at Clouderoff.

H. H. Fris and mother and sister, Mrs. L. Fris and Miss Bertha of Holland, Mich., who spent the week end at the Lodge, left for El Paso yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Stain, the late bride and groom, returned to El Paso after spending part of their honeymoon above the clouds. Mr. Stain is employed in the general offices of the E. P. & S. W. at El Paso. They were showered with rice on arrival here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Forbes, who are taking a driving tour through the country, stopped over at the Lodge yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Loomis, baby and nurse, who have been occupying a cottage here since the middle of May, returned to town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Davis left for home yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Stevenson delightfully entertained sister Katherine and three of the sisters of Hotel Diney "Bill" Diney, who are best references on the returning train, the Clouderoff resort, showed them the almost completed new hotel and the site of the baby sanatorium. The good sisters had no words sufficient in which to express their delight at all they saw and of Clouderoff in general.

W. H. Hargerty has returned, after spending a few days in El Paso on business.

Miss Jeanie and Miss Anna Grace Ellis have returned to El Paso, after having just the best time ever at "Sons Sonci" cottage for two months. Mrs. Ellis and her two younger daughters and son, Paul, will remain at the Croft a while longer, as is expecting her son, Lieut. Olin Ellis, to spend a short leave with them.

Miss Kate Adams and Miss Elizabeth Young have left for home, where they will take up their duties as teachers in the El Paso schools.

Charles Stevens and guest, A. H. Rodes, the insurance actuary, spent a few days at "Stevencroft."

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Slater entertained a week end house party at Cabin Joni. The guests were Mrs. L. S. Stewart and daughter, Virginia, and Miss Emily Ormsbee.

Late arrivals at the Lodge include the following: Robert E. Horton, El Paso; F. O. Stain and wife, El Paso; T. D. Robertson, New Orleans; Mrs. L. S. Stewart and daughter, Virginia, and Miss Emily Ormsbee.
